

Contest: Monday, July 24, 6:30 p.m. -- Dueland Pavilion

LIVESTOCK JUDGING CONTEST

Superintendents: Kelly Sheets and Katlyn Kahler

1. Three to four 4-H or FFA youth (both boys and girls) may compete on each team. Teams may be comprised of any 4-H or FFA members from Story County. You do not have to be from the same club or chapter. 4-H team members may come from another adjoining county, but only if a judging program is not established in the adjoining county.
2. Each team must consist of 3-4 members, with the top three scores counting towards the team total. The following divisions will be offered at the contest:
 - Senior 4-H (grades 9-12)
 - Junior 4-H (grades 4-8)
3. Individual 4-H or FFA members may enter the individual contest. Team members are automatically entered as individuals.
4. Individuals, who wish to judge, but are not a member of a team may judge in the individual judging category.
5. Each contest must consist of at least 6 classes with at least 2 classes from each specie (beef, sheep, swine). These classes can consist of any mix of breeding and market classes. More classes may be added and is at the discretion of the superintendent.
6. Entry in the fair qualifies animals for the Livestock Judging Contest. If your animal is chosen, cooperation is required with the Superintendents. Failure to cooperate will result in disqualification.
7. The contest will be held in Dueland Pavilion as listed in the schedule of events. No advance entry is required.
8. Adults may enter the individual adult judging contest. Top adult judges will receive recognition at the Parade of Champions. Below are youth exhibitor premiums to be awarded:

Junior Judging Team	$50, $25, $15
Senior Judging Team	$50, $25, $15
Champion Junior Individual Livestock Judge	Plaque, $25, $15, $10
